

Niskayuna Community Action Program (N-CAP)
2021 Scholarships

Each year, the Niskayuna Community Action Program (N-CAP) provides two scholarships to graduating seniors from Niskayuna High School. Each award is in the amount of $500.00.

N-CAP wishes to recognize two seniors for their dedication and commitment to community service and the N-CAP mission of improving quality of life, promoting safe and healthy choices, and clarifying and resolving community concerns as felt by residents, students, teachers, government officials and other community members. Contributions made through N-CAP and N-CAP-affiliated organizations and events, volunteer service and other community-based activities are significant factors in determining this award.

If you believe that your volunteer experiences and activities may qualify you for this award, please complete the attached application before March 31, 2021 and email it to INFO@ncapnisky.org or mail it to:
